STORY

FIRST TERM

The Shepherd Boy and the Wolf

Once there was a shepherd boy. One day he thought of a mischief. He climbed up a tree. He cried, Wolf! Wolf! Help me! Help me! The villagers came running. They found no wolf there and went back.

One day a wolf really came there. The boy cried for help. The villager's didn't believe him.

They did not come to his help. The wolf killed many sheep. He rushed at the boy and killed him.

Moral:- Don't tell lies.

SECOND TERM

The Fox and the Grapes:-

Once upon a time there was a fox. He was very hungry. He went to a garden. There he saw a bunch of grapes hanging on a vine. He wanted the grapes. He jumped and jumped again. But he didn't get the grapes. He said, The grapes are sour and walked away.

Moral:- "The Grapes are Sour."

THIRD TERM

The Peacock and the Crane

The peacock was very proudy. He always boasted about his beauty. Everyday he would go to the bank of river to admire his own reflection on the water.

One day peacock saw a crane on the bank. He rudely said to the crane. "What a colourless bird you are" But the crane said very politely. So What? With my feathers. I can fly very high in the sky. While you cannot go high up in the sky.

Moral:- Usefulness is better than mere beauty.
